Summary of special audit report on Generation Next Fashions Limited (GNFL) for the years ended on December 31, 2014 and December 31, 2015 and also special audit of utilization of rights issue proceeds along with physical verification submitted by M/s. A. Qasem & Co., Chartered Accountants are as follows:

Observation 1: Property, Plant and Equipment were kept under Capital Work in Progress (CWIP) for long period and were not capitalized.

During the course of our audit, we have noted that some line items under property, plant and equipment were presented in the financial statement as Capital Work in Progress since 2012 for which no movements in the carrying value since 2012 to 2015. While verifying those assets physically and verifying the underlying facts, we have noted that those assets were being used in operation during the period of special audit. Subsequently these assets were capitalized during the year 2016 without any further cost. It can be assumed that these assets were completed at that point of time. According to accounting principles, these assets should be capitalized in the financial statements and be depreciated from 2012.

If these assets were being capitalized and charged depreciation in the financial statements accordingly, net profit and corresponding EPS should have been negatively affected for the particular years. Details are shown below.

Particulars	2015	2014
Net profit after tax (As per audited financial statements)	340,042,273	497,770,969
Less: Depreciation on capital work in progress (not charged in FS)	(15,088,611)	(15,635,460)
Adjusted net profit after charging depreciation	32,49,53,662	48,21,35,509
Weighted average number of share outstanding	371,881,710	283,006,440
Basic EPS as per audited financial statements	0.91	1.76
Basic EPS after charging depreciation on CWIP	0.87	0.17
EPS from recurring income as per audited financial statements	0.78	1.63

Implication and CFD's Comments:

- Noncompliance with the provision of para 7 and 55 of Bangladesh Accounting Standard (BAS) 16: Property, Plant and Equipment.
- Depreciation expenses were understated and Net Profits were overstated by 15,088,611 in 2015 and 15,635,460 in 2014.
- Earnings Per Share (EPS) were overstated.

Observation 2: Inadequate disclosure regarding Capital Work in Progress (CWIP) presented in financial statements.

While checking the balances in the audited financial statements, we have noted that huge amount of CWIP are remained unchanged in the financial statements from the year 2012 to 2015. For justifying the balances of CWIP, we have checked the source documents, collected background information and finally visited the factory premises for two times. We have found that the building under construction is a 4 storied factory building of 40,000 square feet per floor, started construction works on December, 2011. As per engineer's certification (third party confirmation) ground floor and 1st floor were completed and subsequently transferred to PPE (Building account), depreciation were charged on additional amount as per companies prescribed rate @ 2%. 2nd, 3rd and 4th floor's construction works were at final stage and waiting for engineer's certification. As a huge amount of Capital Work in Progress (CWIP) is remained unchanged in the financial statements for a longer period without transferring to Fixed Assets, the management of the company should disclose the fact and reason for delay in completion of the work in detail for the users of the financial statements for their better understanding.

Details of the movement of CWIP are presented below:

Year	Opening Balance	Addition	Total	Transfer red to Fixed Assets	Balance	Remarks
2013	95,13,64,652	33,25,98,012	1,28,39,62,664	29,71,58,260	98,68,04,404	Civil construction of ground floor of four storied building completed on May 2013 and was ready for production
2014	98,68,04,404	14,57,65,933	1,13,25,70,337	7,92,84,652	1,05,32,85,685	1 st Floor completed on February 2014 and was partially ready for production

Observation 22: Gratuity fund was not maintained by the entity.

The entity has a policy of paying gratuity to all of the outgoing workers who have been working for more than 10 years in the company equivalent to one month's basic salary for each year of service. However the entity does not maintain or recognize any gratuity fund in the financial statements in favor of its employees.

Implications & CFD's Comments:

- Non-compliance of section 2 910) of Labor Laws 2006 (as amended up to 2013).

They simply uses Microsoft Excel Spreadsheet (MS Excel) to record day to day transactions. They are maintaining journal entries, general ledger and other accounting records in MS Excel only. They are also not maintaining accounting records manually in hard copy format.

We further noted that the books of accounts (i.e. ledger) and recording of transactions (i.e. journal) are not properly maintained. No systematic debit and credit concept was applied both in journals and ledgers. Only the extract of transaction was recorded with date and amount without any detail particular. No Trial Balance was prepared by the entity.

Implications:

- Books of accounts were not maintained systematically.
- It may create inconsistency in data entry, errors and omissions and miscopying information.
- Data security may not be ensured and disaster recovery plans harder to implement.
- Duplication of data entry and prone to human error.

During the course of our special audit, we have found that the entity does not maintain a unique number series of any vouchers.

Implications:

- It may not be possible to find out the missing voucher.
- Searching any particular voucher will be time consuming.
- It implies significant control weakness over recording process.
