2.1 The Honorable Advisors of the Ministry of Finance and the Ministry of Commerce Meeting with BSEC

On 30 October 2024, a meeting was held between the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC) and Dr. Salehuddin Ahmed, the Honorable Advisor to the Ministry of Finance and the Ministry of Commerce. BSEC Chairman Mr. Khondoker Rashed Maqsood, BSEC Commissioners namely Mr. Md. Mohsin Chowdhury, Mr. Md. Ali Akbar and Ms. Farzana Lalarukh were present in the meeting held at the Commission Bhaban.

Honorable Advisor Dr. Salehuddin Ahmed said that the government is working to raise the country's capital market to international standards. He emphasized that efforts in this regard are ongoing. He mentioned that various issues related to the capital market were discussed in the meeting, and steps are being taken to address some of the immediate solutions to the existing crisis in the capital market. Additionally, the development of the mutual fund sector and boosting investor confidence were also discussed in the meeting.

Hon'ble Advisor to Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Commerce and Officials of BSEC

The BSEC Chairman extended heartfelt thanks and greetings to the Honorable Advisor for visiting the BSEC office and showing kind attention to the country's capital market and related matters. He presented detailed information about the current state of the capital market and various associated issues during the meeting. He also expressed BSEC's commitment to resolving the existing challenges in the capital market and harnessing its potential. During this time, he requested the government's kind attention and policy support for the development and reform of the capital market.

In the meeting, a presentation titled 'Current Scenario of Capital Market of Bangladesh: Challenges Prospects, and Strategies' was delivered on behalf of BSEC. During this time, the Honorable Advisor was briefed on the overall activities and the recent measures undertaken by BSEC for the development of the capital market. The meeting specifically recommended taking prompt steps to introduce low-interest refinancing facilities for institutional investors to enhance market liquidity.

2.2 BSEC's Meeting with Financial Institutions Division of the Ministry of Finance

On 4 December 2024, a discussion meeting was held between Ms. Nazma Mobarek, Secretary of the Financial Institutions Division of the Ministry of Finance, senior officials of the division, and the Chairman, Commissioners, Executive Directors, and Directors of the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Secretary of the Financial Institutions Division, along with officials of the commission

The Secretary of the Financial Institutions Division remarked that the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC), as the regulator of the capital market, has a significant and important role to play. He emphasized the need to create an investment-friendly environment for the country's investors. He also mentioned the importance of working together to address various policy related issues and challenges in the capital market.

The Chairman of BSEC, Mr. Khondoker Rashed Maqsood, extended his sincere thanks and greetings to the Secretary of the Financial Institutions Division for visiting the BSEC office and participating in the meeting. He stated that BSEC is tirelessly working to resolve the existing crises in the capital market and to utilize its potential. He also requested the Ministry of Finance and the Financial Institutions Division to support the development and reform of the capital market. In the meeting, he emphasized the need for the growth and development of the capital market for the betterment of the country's economy and banking system. He also highlighted the importance of integrated financial systems and policies in the interest of the national economy.

BSEC Commissioner Mr. Md. Mohsin Chowdhury expressed his appreciation and gratitude for the proactive approach of the esteemed Secretary of the Financial Institutions Division in the interest of the country's economy and capital market.

BSEC's Executive Director, Mr. Mohammad Rezaul Karim, delivered a presentation titled 'Roles and Functions of Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC)' and 'Current Scenario of Capital Market of Bangladesh: Challenges, Prospects, and Strategies.' The presentation highlighted the Commission's vision and mission, core activities, existing structure and manpower, the country's capital market and its overall infrastructure, as well as the division-wise activities of the Commission. A strong role was urged from the Financial Institutions Division on various issues related to the development of the capital market.

2.3 The 'Conference on Enhancing Securities Regulation' was Organized Jointly by BSEC, the World Bank, and the U.S. SEC

The inaugural ceremony of the workshop took place on 27 October 2024, at the BSEC Bhaban. The event was inaugurated by Chairman of BSEC. The four day workshop, scheduled from 27 October to 30 October 2024, brought together officials and representatives from the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission, the Financial Institutions Division, Bangladesh Bank, and Dhaka Stock Exchange PLC. The inaugural event was attended by BSEC Commissioner, officials and other relevant stakeholders.

Representatives from BSEC, the World Bank, and the U.S. SEC

In the inaugural ceremony, Mr. Khondoker Rashed Maqsood, Chairman of BSEC, delivered the opening remarks. The event also featured speeches from Mr. Zsolt Bango, Senior Financial Sector Specialist of the World Bank; Mr. Paul Gumagay, Associate Director of the U.S. SEC; and Mr. James Gardiner, Economic Officer of the U.S. Embassy in Dhaka.

In his inaugural speech, the BSEC Chairman extended heartfelt thanks and greetings to all participants and those involved in organizing the workshop. He stated, 'We are fortunate to have organized such a workshop with the support of the U.S. SEC and the World Bank, led by highly skilled and experienced professionals in the field of capital markets. This kind of workshop will help all stakeholders better understand each other's perspectives in carrying out their responsibilities in the capital market. We have always been eager to host successful long-term partnerships and collaborative initiatives with the World Bank and the U.S. SEC. Such partnerships and initiatives will further strengthen our relationship with the World Bank.' He expressed hope that more such programs would be conducted in the future for the development and welfare of the country's capital market.

Mr. James Gardiner, Economic Officer of the U.S. Embassy in Dhaka, stated, among other things, that the United States is committed to supporting Bangladesh's development and facilitating necessary reforms in the country's economic sector. Regarding the workshop, he noted that this is the first such initiative in Bangladesh since 5 August. He expressed hope that this initiative would lead to positive outcomes with the efforts of a new generation in a changing Bangladesh.

Training sessions on various capital market-related topics were conducted by U.S. SEC representatives, including Mr. Nitish Bahadur, Risk Strategist; Mr. Paul Gumagay, Associate Director; Mr. Tom Swiers, Branch Chief; and Ms. Celeste M. Murphy, Senior Special Counsel.

2.4 Workshop on 'Industry Day' jointly organized by BSEC, the World Bank, and the U.S. SEC

On 31 October 2024, a session titled 'Industry Day' was held at the BSEC headquarters, jointly organized by BSEC, the World Bank, and the U.S. SEC. Participants in the session included representatives from DSE, CSE, CDBL, CCBL, BICM, BASM, BMBA, AAMCMF, ACRAB, BAPLC, VCPEAB, CMSF, ICB, and various entities operating in the country's capital market, including TREC Holders of DSE and CSE, Asset Management Companies, Merchant Bankers, Credit Rating Companies, Fund Managers, Securities Custodians, Mutual Fund Custodians, Trustees of Alternative Funds, and Trustees of Debt Securities. The session was conducted by Mr. Nitish Bahadur, Risk Strategist of the U.S. SEC, and Mr. Paul Gumagay, Associate Director of the U.S. SEC.

Invited Guests at the Industry Day

Discussions were held on various aspects of the U.S. capital market and the operational procedures of its regulatory body, the U.S. SEC. The roles of intermediaries and stakeholders in Bangladesh's capital market were extensively discussed, alongside the roles stakeholders play in the context of the U.S. capital market. The speakers expressed optimism that Bangladesh's capital market would perform even better in the future.

Such initiatives will enhance the capacity of representatives from various institutions and organizations associated with the country's economy and capital market, contributing effectively to the development of the capital market.

2.5 Discussion Meeting between BSEC and Top Executives of Grameenphone

On 22 October 2024, a meeting was held between the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC) and the top executives of Grameenphone.

The meeting, conducted at the BSEC Bhaban, was attended by Mr. Khondoker Rashed Maqsood, Chairman of BSEC; Ms. Farzana Lalarukh, Commissioner of BSEC; Mr. Yasir Azman, Chief Executive Officer of Grameenphone; Mr. Otto Magne Risbakk, Chief Financial Officer of Grameenphone; and Ms. Chowdhury Tazrian Israt, Head of Investor Relations at Grameenphone.

The Chairman and Commissioner of the Commission and the Top Executives of Grameenphone

In the meeting, the Chairman of the Commission stated, among other things, that Grameenphone is the largest company on the Dhaka Stock Exchange (DSE) in terms of market capitalization and also the largest mobile telecommunication operator in Bangladesh. He emphasized that just as Grameenphone has played a role in the past in the development and growth of the country's capital market, it is expected to play a significant role in taking the market to greater heights in the future. As the largest mobile telecommunication operator in the country, Grameenphone has the unique advantage of directly and rapidly connecting with people from all classes and professions across the nation. Utilizing this advantage, BSEC and Grameenphone will work together to spread investment education among the general public.

The meeting also included discussions on various aspects of the country's capital market, Grameenphone's current market position, future plans, and opportunities. Topics such as the development of the capital market, increasing awareness and trust among investors, expanding financial literacy in the country, and Grameenphone's potential role in these areas were addressed. Overall, the meeting highlighted the importance of spreading financial literacy, raising awareness among investors, and the scope of Grameenphone's cooperation in achieving these goals.

2.6 Organizing a Meeting on 'Developing the Mutual Fund Industry in Bangladesh

On 25 November 2024, the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC) organized a meeting titled 'Developing the Mutual Fund Industry in Bangladesh', with the participation of top representatives from asset management companies operating in the capital market.

The meeting, held at the BSEC Bhaban, was presided over by the Chairman of the Commission. The event was attended by BSEC Commissioners, officials, and managing directors and chief executive officers-key representatives from asset management companies operating in the country's capital market.

Representatives of Asset Management Companies Engage in a Discussion Meeting with the Commission

In his opening remarks, the Chairman of the Commission emphasized the importance of the mutual fund sector in the capital market, stating, 'The mutual fund sector should be at the forefront of the capital market as it serves as a strong alternative for retail investors. Investment in this sector is managed by skilled and experienced fund managers, which not only increases the likelihood of profitable investments but also provides greater protection for investors. If the mutual fund sector is not properly developed, the country's capital market will not be able to advance in the future. The BSEC is committed to addressing the challenges and obstacles in this sector, working towards sustainable solutions and development, and providing all necessary support. With collective effort and determination, the mutual fund sector in the country can achieve a bright future.'

During the meeting, top representatives of asset management companies shared their views and proposals on the current state of the mutual fund sector and potential reforms. The importance of enhancing transparency, accountability, and good governance to increase investor confidence in the mutual fund sector was particularly highlighted.

Key proposals discussed during the meeting included simplifying the investment process in mutual funds, reforming and modernizing existing rules and regulations in the capital market, introducing tax reforms specific to the mutual fund sector, promoting mutual funds through investor education, facilitating the repatriation of profits and capital gains for foreign investors to attract foreign investment, providing policy support and regulatory reforms for the mutual fund sector, and initiating coordinated efforts among relevant government institutions and agencies (such as Bangladesh Bank, NBR, and BSEC). Furthermore, initiatives to increase awareness and confidence among investors were emphasized as crucial steps for the sector's growth and development.

2.7 Workshop on 'Prospects and Legal Framework for Introducing Commodity Derivatives in Bangladesh'

On 23 December 2024, the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC) organized a workshop titled 'Prospects and Legal Framework for Introducing Commodity Derivatives in Bangladesh.' The workshop, presided over by BSEC Commissioner Ms. Farzana Lalarukh, was held at the Commission's multipurpose hall. Participants included BSEC's executive directors as well as representatives from the Finance Division, Financial Institutions Division, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Commerce, Ministry of Industries, National Board of Revenue, Dhaka Stock Exchange PLC, Chittagong Stock Exchange PLC, Bangladesh Academy for Securities Markets (BASM), BICM, and other relevant institutions.

Participants in the Workshop

BSEC Commissioner Ms. Farzana Lalarukh delivered the keynote address as the chair of the workshop. She expressed her gratitude and extended warm regards to all participants. Highlighting the significant potential of commodity exchanges in the country, she emphasized the importance of capacity building, collaborative initiatives, and ensuring necessary preparatory measures for the successful implementation of commodity derivatives in Bangladesh. She called for the support of all stakeholders to harness the potential of commodity derivatives to advance the development of the country's capital market.

BSEC Executive Director Mr. Mohammad Rezaul Karim presented the main paper titled 'Prospects, Challenges, and Legal Framework for Introducing Commodity Derivatives in Bangladesh.'

The workshop addressed topics such as derivatives and derivative markets, products and trading mechanisms related to commodity exchanges, opportunities and prospects of the commodity derivatives market in Bangladesh, trading, clearing, and settlement processes of commodity derivatives, and other related subjects. Discussions also focused on existing challenges to launching a commodity derivatives market in Bangladesh and their potential solutions.

Representatives from the Financial Institutions Division, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Commerce, Ministry of Industries, and National Board of Revenue shared their opinions on the topics discussed during the workshop.

2.8 On the occasion of 'Victory Day 2024,' BSEC Organized a Discussion Meeting and Paid Floral Tributes at the National Memorial

On 16 December 2024, the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC) organized a discussion meeting with the participation of officers and employees of all grades of the commission on the occasion of 'Victory Day, 2024.' The meeting, held in the commission's conference room, began with the playing of the national anthem. BSEC Chairman was present as the chief guest at the event. In addition, BSEC commissioners, executive directors, and members of the 'Victory Day Celebration Committee 2024' attended the meeting. Other employees of the commission also participated online.

During the meeting, BSEC Chairman and other commissioners delivered speeches. The discussion highlighted the significance and importance of Victory Day. Furthermore, the sacrifices of martyrs and contributions of all involved in the Liberation War were remembered with deep respect.

On the occasion of 'Victory Day 2024,' BSEC officials

At the end of the discussion, prayers were offered for the forgiveness of all martyrs of the Liberation War and for the overall well-being of the country. Following the discussion, on behalf of BSEC, floral tributes were placed at the National Memorial, and deep respect was paid to all the brave martyrs of the Liberation War.

2.9 Exchange of views between BSEC and ICB

On 20 October 2024, an exchange of views meeting was held between the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC) and the Investment Corporation of Bangladesh (ICB) on various issues, including the overall development and reform of the capital market. The meeting took place at the BSEC headquarters. BSEC Chairman, Commissioners, officials, and ICB Managing Director Mr. Md. Abul Hossain, along with senior officials from ICB, were present at the meeting.

Representatives of BSEC and the ICB

In his speech as the chair, the BSEC Chairman highlighted that reform is at the core of the development and welfare of the country's capital market. He mentioned that the task force established by BSEC is working independently for the sustainable and proper reform of the capital market. As part of the reform plan, several focus groups comprising individuals with expertise and experience in the capital market will operate under the task force. He emphasized that as the largest investor in the country's capital market and a state-owned investment corporation of the Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, ICB must play a significant role in the development of the capital market. He stressed the importance of identifying existing challenges in the capital market and taking proactive measures to resolve them. The chairman expressed hope that ICB would play an active, responsible, and leading role in achieving sustainable and proper reform of the capital market.

Senior officials of the ICB commended BSEC's initiatives regarding the overall development and reform of the country's capital market. They also presented opinions and proposals on development and reform from ICB's perspective.

During the meeting, several proposals were discussed, including:

- Taking initiatives to formulate policies for sourcing funds from the capital market for the long term financing of nationally important development projects,
- Reforming the margin regulations for securities purchases by stakeholders,
- Revising regulations related to the distribution of interest on customers' consolidated bank accounts,
- Setting a reasonable minimum limit for brokerage commissions,
- Simplifying the transactions and interest payments of treasury bonds,
- Revising the settlement timeline for share transactions in the secondary market, and
- Reforming tax-related policies in the capital market.

ICB representatives also mentioned that their efforts to list fundamentally strong companies and introduce new products in the capital market remain ongoing.

2.10 Exchange of Views with BSEC and ICAB

On 28 October 2024, an exchange of views meeting was held between the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission and senior representatives of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Bangladesh regarding the overall development and reform of the capital market. The meeting held at the BSEC Bhaban, was attended by BSEC Chairman, Commissioners, ICAB President, and other representatives from ICAB.

Representatives of BSEC and the ICAB

In his opening remarks, the BSEC Chairman stated that the commission is working to build a knowledge-based capital market. Highlighting the critical role of auditors in the capital market, he emphasized that auditors' responsible actions can enhance transparency and accountability in listed companies, contributing significantly to the stability and discipline of the market. He called on audit firms and professionals to play their respective roles effectively in the development and reform of the capital market. Comparing the capital market to an orchestra, he noted that the market operates with the participation of all stakeholders, including regulatory bodies, exchanges, listed companies, investors, and intermediaries. To elevate the country's capital market to a better position, everyone must act responsibly and fulfill their duties while playing a meaningful role in development and reform. He also stressed the importance of protecting and safeguarding the interests of investors during the discussion.

Senior representatives of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Bangladesh presented their opinions and proposals regarding the overall development and reform of the country's capital market. They discussed the roles and responsibilities of audit firms and auditors in the growth and development of the capital market, the challenges and barriers in auditing practices, and the necessary actions to address these issues. Topics such as ensuring good governance in listed companies, making directors more accountable and reforming their appointment process, enhancing the responsibilities, transparency, and accountability of CFOs in the preparation of financial statements, ensuring proper financial reporting, and promoting high-quality financial reports and auditing in Bangladesh were also discussed.

Additionally, the discussions emphasized upholding the highest standards of professionalism, integrity, and ethics, ensuring clear and transparent audit practices, and expanding and improving financial reporting and auditing standards in the country. Representatives of ICAB expressed their commitment to work closely with the regulatory body for the sustainable development and reform of the capital market.

2.11 Discussion Meeting with BSEC and ICSB

On 15 October 2024, a discussion meeting was held between BSEC and senior representatives of ICSB regarding the overall development and reform of the capital market. The meeting held at the BSEC premises, was attended by the BSEC Chairman, Commissioners, officials, and senior representatives of ICSB.

Representatives of BSEC and ICSB

In his opening remarks, the BSEC Chairman expressed his heartfelt thanks and greetings to all participants. He emphasized the importance of all individuals, institutions, and organizations related to the market playing their necessary and appropriate roles, following their responsibilities and duties, for the development and welfare of the country's capital market and the creation of a prosperous market. The BSEC has formed a task force to ensure sustainable and proper reforms in the capital market, and this task force has already started working on comprehensive reforms in the capital market. He highlighted the importance of ensuring proper implementation of the corporate governance code through the professional and responsible roles of company secretaries in listed companies. He expressed hope that the proper implementation of the corporate governance code would play a vital role in increasing discipline and stability in the capital market and listed companies.

During the meeting, senior representatives of ICSB presented their views and proposals regarding the overall development and reform of the country's capital market. The discussion included the role and responsibilities of chartered secretaries working in listed companies in the development and growth of the country's capital market. Other points of discussion included ensuring corporate governance in listed companies, reforms in the appointment of independent directors in companies, training and development processes for improving the skills and capabilities of chartered secretaries or company secretaries working in companies, making company secretaries more responsible to ensure internal governance, increasing communication and coordination between companies and regulatory authorities to solve existing problems, including dividend distribution and other issues.

The discussion also focused on ensuring institutional governance in listed companies to fully protect the interests of shareholders or investors. The need for increasing transparency and accountability, and creating a favorable investment environment through good governance in the capital market, was highlighted. ICSB representatives pledged to work together with the regulatory authorities for the sustainable development and reform of the country's capital market.

2.12 Meeting between BSEC and Board Members, Senior Officials, and Stakeholder Companies of Chittagong Stock Exchange

On 21 October 2024, a meeting was held between BSEC and the board members and senior officials of CSE. The meeting took place at the CSE office in Chittagong, and was attended by BSEC Chairman, BSEC commissioners, BSEC officials, and the CSE board members, led by Chairman, Managing Director, and other senior officials.

During the meeting, a presentation was made on behalf of CSE, which detailed the current infrastructure, manpower, activities, current status, future prospects, challenges, and necessary actions. Various issues related to the country's capital market were discussed, including commodity exchanges, commodity derivatives, reforms, and other related topics.

Meeting between BSEC and Representatives of CSE's Stakeholder Companies

The meeting, chaired by the BSEC Chairman, focused on the vision of making the capital market the economic hub of the country and a source of long-term financing. To achieve this, it was emphasized that a prosperous and successful capital market can only be built through the collaborative efforts of BSEC, as well as all stakeholders involved in the market. The existing problems in the capital market need to be resolved, though this may not happen immediately. The Chairman further stated that the most crucial aspect is reform. This reform cannot be accomplished alone, and as such, opinions are being gathered, and the reforms will be carried out gradually through proper legal and regulatory processes.

Additionally, a separate meeting was held with the stakeholders and local participants of CSE. During this meeting, the representatives of stakeholder companies presented their various opinions to BSEC and expressed their expectations for a strong and prosperous capital market in the future. Proposals for reform, including ensuring corporate governance, enhancing investor confidence, and revising public issue and margin rules, were discussed. The BSEC Chairman and commissioners listened to the proposals attentively and assured that necessary steps would be taken, considering all aspects, for the required reforms.

BSEC is tirelessly working to create a transparent and prosperous capital market with the input and cooperation of all market participants and stakeholders. The productive meeting between BSEC, CSE's board, management, stakeholders, and local participants in Chittagong is expected to bring good news and better times for the country's capital market.

2.13 Meeting between BSEC and Major Chattogram-Based Industrial Groups

On 21 October 2024, a meeting was held between the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission and major Chattogram-based industrial groups. The meeting took place at the Radisson Blu Hotel in Chattogram and was attended by BSEC Chairman Mr. Khondoker Rashed Maqsood, BSEC commissioners, officials, and prominent entrepreneurs, including the founder and chairman of PHP Group of Industries, Mr. Sufi Mohammed Mizanur Rahman, chairman of BSRM Group of Companies, Mr. Alihossain Akbarali FCA, and managing director of Pacific Jeans Group, Mr. Syed Mohammed Tanvir, along with other local business leaders.

BSEC and Representatives of Major Chattogram-Based Industrial Groups

In a meeting with the country's leading Chattogram-based industrial groups, discussions were held regarding the inclusion of top-tier and reputable companies with strong fundamentals into the capital market. Chattogram, recognized as the commercial capital of Bangladesh, is home to many significant industries and businesses. The meeting explored the potential of listing the strong, fundamentally sound companies under these major industrial groups on the stock exchange.

Various topics were discussed, including the process of listing in the capital market, existing obstacles and complexities in the path to listing, the role of capital markets in providing long-term financing instead of relying on banks, raising capital, and business expansion for fundamentally strong companies through listing.

The Chairman of BSEC highlighted the importance of these companies, which have long contributed to the country's economy with success and reputation, participating in the capital market. He stated that globally, capital markets act as a driving force for economic growth. Listing strong, fundamentally sound companies from various sectors in Bangladesh would further enrich and strengthen the country's capital market while accelerating industrialization and sustainable development. He assured that BSEC is ready to provide all possible support in this regard.

In the meeting, Mr. Sufi Mohammed Mizanur Rahman, the founder and chairman of PHP Group of Industries, said that by operating businesses with honesty, dedication, and compliance with laws, the private sector can significantly contribute to national revenue growth and the country's development. PHP Group has been achieving this with integrity for many years.

Mr. Alihossain Akbarali, Chairman of BSRM Group of Companies, noted that listing on the capital market enhances transparency and ensures good governance within companies.

Mr. Syed Mohammed Tanvir, Managing Director of Pacific Jeans Group, emphasized the necessity of substantial working capital in the readymade garments sector. He pointed out that there are some regulatory complexities regarding the utilization of capital raised from the existing capital market. Reforming these regulations could create financing opportunities for companies in the garments sector and benefit the industry as a whole.

BSEC anticipates that this productive meeting and its sincere efforts will lead to the listing of fundamentally strong companies in Bangladesh's capital market in the future.

2.14 Meeting between BSEC and DBA, BMBA, ACRAB, BAPLC, FRC, ICAB, and ICMAB on Comprehensive Capital Market Reforms

On 1 October 2024, a meeting was held between the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission and the top representatives of DBA, BMBA, ACRAB, BAPLC, FRC, ICAB, and ICMAB regarding comprehensive reforms of the capital market. The meeting took place at the Commission Building and was attended by the BSEC Chairman, commissioners, executive directors, and senior representatives of the aforementioned organizations.

Commission and Representatives of DBA, BMBA, ACRAB, BAPLC, FRC, ICAB, and ICMAB

During the meeting, the BSEC Chairman urged all institutions related to the capital market, including DSE, CSE, CDBL, issuers or listed companies, stock broker and dealer firms, merchant banks, credit rating agencies, asset management companies, audit firms, and the Financial Reporting Council (FRC), to fulfill their respective roles effectively. He emphasized that building a prosperous and successful capital market requires the active participation of all institutions associated with the market, not just BSEC. Each organization must systematically carry out its responsibilities and contribute to the development and reform of the capital market.

The representatives of DBA, BMBA, ACRAB, BAPLC, FRC, ICAB, and ICMAB shared their opinions and proposals on comprehensive reforms for the country's capital market. They also highlighted various obstacles and challenges that hinder the development and growth of the market. Key topics discussed during the meeting included: reforming the regulatory framework for listed companies, market intermediaries, and other stakeholders, strengthening monitoring activities within the capital market, ensuring good governance and compliance with securities laws, enhancing transparency and accountability, ensuring proper financial reporting practices, simplifying IPO listing rules and the IPO approval process, coordinating with relevant government agencies to revise policies on dividend and capital gains tax.

The discussions stressed the importance of boosting investor confidence and implementing constructive and sustainable reforms in the capital market. Also in attendance were the BSEC Commissioners, Chairman and Managing Director of Meghna Group of Industries Mr. Mostafa Kamal, Managing Director of City Group Mr. Md. Hasan, and Director of PHP Group Mr. Mohammad Akhtar Parvez.

The discussion focused on encouraging the listing of top-tier, well-established, and fundamentally strong companies and groups in the country's capital market. Recognizing the need for the listing of high-quality companies for the benefit of the capital market, BSEC is actively working toward this goal. In line with this effort, the meeting engaged with the owners of three of the country's largest business groups-Meghna Group, City Group, and PHP Group-to discuss listing their strong, fundamentally sound companies on the capital market. The productive meeting covered various topics, including long-term financing through the capital market, company valuation during the listing process, simplifying and expediting IPO approvals, and streamlining the listing process.

Representatives of Meghna Group, City Group, and PHP Group Meet with BSEC

At the meeting, the Chairman of BSEC stated, 'Meghna Group, City Group, and PHP Group have made significant contributions to Bangladesh's economic development and the industrial-commercial sector. In addition to being among the largest industrial conglomerates in Bangladesh, they operate established companies across various sectors, including chemicals, cement, food and consumer goods, real estate, insurance, securities, utilities, steel, printing and packaging, shipping, power and energy, shares and securities, media, healthcare, steel, glass, aluminum, shipbreaking and recycling, textiles, petroleum products, agricultural products, leather goods, and fisheries. This reflects the diversification and extensive reach of their businesses.

Listing these fundamentally strong and important companies from different sectors in the country's capital market will not only strengthen the stock market but also create opportunities for further industrialization and economic growth by facilitating financing through the capital market. To achieve the goal of listing fundamentally strong companies in the stock market, BSEC will hold meetings with other major business groups in the country. As a result of these efforts, BSEC expects the future inclusion of high-quality companies in Bangladesh's stock market. This will bring new momentum to the capital market and make it more vibrant. The current commission is working tirelessly to build a prosperous and successful stock market and to ensure the overall development and reform of the capital market. Through reforms, development, and good governance, investors can expect a transparent, dynamic, and modern stock market in the near future.
