"With due respect, I would like to respond to the allegation of non-compliance of securities-related laws for trading of Orion Infusion shares as mentioned under Section 17(e)(v) of the Securities and Exchange Ordinance, 1969.

You are well aware that the capital market of Bangladesh has been going through a very transitional period for several years. Individual investors like me suffered substantial losses due to declining stock prices and high market volatility. As an investor, I always try to invest according to the rules and regulations related to the capital market. A brief description of my stock market investments is as follows:

Total Investment BDT 30,80,00,000.00 Total Withdrawal BDT 1,01,00,000.00 Total realized Profit BDT 6,17,41,595.32 and unrealized gain (loss) BDT (20,15,46,568.43) My present portfolio position shown that BDT 13,98,04,973.11 loss due to price declining of shares holding in my account.

In view of the alleged breach of law against me, my statement is as follows:

Based on the address information with my BO account some investors are associated with whom I do not know personally and the matching of the information is coincidental. I take my investment decisions very personally and respect the law at all times.

- 1. The trades executed during the period in question were conducted with the sole intent of optimizing investment returns based on market analysis and company fundamentals. There was no deliberate effort to manipulate the price of Orion Infusion shares or create a misleading appearance of trading activity.*
- 2. The observed price movement and trading volume may have been influenced by prevailing market conditions, including market demand, or broader industry trends, rather than any coordinated or manipulative trading activity*
- 3. I would like to emphasize that the trades were conducted independently and not as part of a coordinated effort to artificially influence the market. Any appearance of concentration in trading activity was coincidental and not intended to breach securities regulations.*
- 4. I have always operated in good faith and adhered to the rules and regulations of the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission. To further ensure compliance, I am committed to strengthening my knowledge about securities related laws.*
- 5. I request the honorable Commission to consider this explanation and the absence of any malicious intent. If there were any unintentional lapses in compliance, I assure the Commission that corrective measures will be taken to prevent recurrence*

I remain committed to upholding the integrity of the capital market and cooperating fully with the Commission in this matter"
